Judges Comments:

Wines presented are a true reflection of the difficult 2011 vintage. Overuse of sugar was a concern.

Judges Comments:

Strong class. Modern styles are in abundance; colour, complexity, compact palate and cool fruit sourcing. Some wines reflected the soil harvest challenge - fruit limited and oak was excessive.

Exciting class to judge. Top three wines unanimous golds. Many varying styles. Volatility is a major concern (10% of class). The pursuit of complexity is admired but must be controlled.

Judges Comments:

Top two wines excellent examples of Australian Pinot Noir's diverse styles. Non award wines lacking varietal fruit. We are now seeing far more quality wines of true varietal fruit.

Judges Comments:

Top awards showing brightness of fruit, balanced tsnins and great use of oak. Non awards - poor colours, too much bret & VA. Many wines showing concerning degree of sulphide. Attention to detail would help many of these wines.

Judges Comments:

Fairly strong class although lesser wines had some obvious faults. Two top wines were an example of a big style and a lighter style. Generally viognier not obvious, a good trend.

Judges Comments:

Given many 2011 wines (a difficult vintage) in the class, a very good outcome. Most wines fresh and varietal, however perhaps lacking complexity and structure.

Top wines show fruit intensity, structure and restraint.

Judges Comments:

Sound class with many wines being too simple. Top wines showing good complexity.

Judges Comments:

A solid class of good commercial wines with very few highlights. Poor colour of major concern with most non-award wines. Early development in many of these young wines should be addressed prior to continuing to bottle.

Judges Comments:

Many wines looked soft dry red. Better wines had Pinot varietal character. Some wines would have been better with less oak. The quest for complexity can result in reductive character.

Judges Comments:

Quite good class on average with few bad wines. Main criticism was wine with hot alcohol, too much oak and balance problems. Top wines balanced, concentrated, medium weight, well integrated oak.

Judges Comments:

Mix of style and quality. Quite a good class. 2011 vintage showing weedy, unripe flavours. Some wines too much oak.
